

Conference Scholarship

Conference Scholarship

Government Finance Officers Association of Texas (GFOAT) awards Conference Scholarships to current governmental employees in the financial area who intend to progress professionally in the field of governmental finance. Each year, two scholarships are awarded for the GFOAT Spring Institute, and two are awarded for the GFOAT Fall Conference. GFOAT pays the registration fee and travel expenses to attend the two conferences.

Application

Access the online application at: www.gfoat.org.

Each submission must include the following information:

- Organizational chart of your employer
- Analysis of your department's travel budget for the current fiscal year
- Transmittal/cover letter
- Approval letter provided by your supervisor
- Resume (optional)

All applications received will be reviewed and awarded by members of the GFOAT Scholarship and Fellowship Committee.

Submission

Applications should be submitted, with all the supporting documentation, by email to both committee co-chairs:
