

President

Keith Dagen

Director of Finance City of Richardson

Keith Dagen is the director of finance for the City of Richardson. He began his government career with the City of Garland in 1998 and joined Richardson in 2003. Keith is a Certified Public Accountant, has an Master of Business Administration from The University of Texas at Dallas, and graduated Summa Cum Laude with a Bachelor of Business Administration in accounting from Harding University. Keith has been a member of the Government Finance Officers Association of Texas (GFOAT) since 2003, where he is currently the president-elect. Previously, he held board roles as secretary and as GFOAT's representative to the Texas Municipal Retirement System's Advisory Committee on Benefit Design. He also served on GFOAT's Financial Reporting and Regulatory Response Committee from 2007 until 2019 and has represented GFOAT's interests before the Governmental Accounting Standards Board. Keith is also a member of GFOA, GTOT, and a graduate of Leadership Richardson.