

Marti Shew is a Managing Director will Hilltop Securities. She has 18 years of experience providing financial advisory services to governmental entities. She has structured more than 500 financings totaling over $6 billion for a variety of issuers including cities, counties, public and private universities, airports, hospitals and water districts. Marti is a past board member of the Municipal Advisory Council of Texas. She is also a past board member and Dallas Area Event Chair for Texas Women in Public Finance. She holds a Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Hispanic Studies with a minor in Mathematics from the University of Texas in Austin.