

Lynn F. Anderson Fellowship in Government Finance

FELLOWSHIP IN GOVERNMENT FINANCE OBJECTIVE AND STRATEGY

OBJECTIVE – The objective of the Fellowship in Governmental Finance is to help those persons interested in local governmental finance achieve educational excellence while providing Texas cities with professional financial decision-makers.

FUNDING – The Fellowship is a $5,000 ($2,500 per semester) scholarship awarded for a period of one year.

STRATEGY – The strategy has been to notify as many institutions and agencies as possible in order to afford this opportunity to as many individuals as possible. During the time a recipient is receiving the Fellowship, every effort is made to include the recipient in as many GFOAT activities as possible in order to gain the maximum exposure for the recipient as well as GFOAT.

CALENDAR

Advertise and Promote – Through July

Application deadline – Must be post marked on/or before July 31

Interviews (if required) – September

Notify Recipient – no later than September 30th

Recognize Recipient – Fall and/or Spring GFOAT conference

PROCEDURE

Once the application is submitted, selection is made for eligible candidates to interview. After award of the Fellowship, appropriate documents must be transmitted to secure funds. Participation at the GFOAT Fall and Spring Conferences is also provided to recipient. See calendar for scheduling dates.

FELLOWSHIP INFORMATION

Please review the following criteria that will be used in the evaluation process by the Scholarship/Fellowship/Foundation Committee:

1. The period of the Fellowship is one year commencing with the fall semester.
2. Students enrolled part-time (less than nine graduate hours per semester) while working full-time in a city or other governmental entity will be considered; however, only after first priority has been given to full-time graduate students.
3. The amount of the Fellowship will be $5,000, which will not be divided among multiple winners. There will be only one winner each year.
4. The winner will be required to submit periodic progress reports outlining courses taken, grades received, and special assignments completed.
5. The $5,000 Fellowship will be provided in equal amounts at the beginning of the recipient's first two semesters.
6. Applicants must be a Texas resident prior to receiving any Fellowship money and must be accepted to attend a Texas University or College.

GFOAT

The Government Finance Officers Association of Texas (GFOAT) is an association whose objectives include the professional practice of governmental financial management through sponsorship of educational opportunities for its members. GFOAT seeks to represent its membership by active study of the problems of financial management and by the encouragement of high professional standards.

Although not formally affiliated with the Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada, the GFOAT shares many of the goals. Whereas the GFOAT seeks to extend the educational and professional opportunities to its members on a statewide level, GFOA seeks to extend the education and professional opportunities on a national and international level.

The Association's activities are controlled by a Board of Directors made up of the elected officers and the immediate past president, and is affiliated with the Texas Municipal League (TML). TML is an organization dedicated to excellence in all aspects of municipal management and is represented throughout the State.

There are currently over 900 GFOAT members throughout the State of Texas. These members hold one of four (4) types of memberships: Active, Associate, Faculty/Student or Honorary.

Continuing education is accomplished through a number of venues, including conferences, seminars, scholarships, regional meetings and the website. The continuing education training often fulfills high standards required for the Certified Public Accountant (CPA) and the Certified Government Finance Officer (CGFO), and other professional certifications.

The GFOAT established a foundation for the basis of awarding the Governmental Finance Fellowship to a graduate student in the area of governmental finance. This fellowship is awarded based on intent of study and future career choice. The foundation has been established by donations from various sponsors and intends to grow a significant level. In the Spring of 1987, this fellowship was formally titled the Lynn F. Anderson Fellowship and currently consists of the following members:

Lynn F. Anderson Fellowship in Government Finance

LYNN F. ANDERSON

Professor Lynn Anderson, was known to thousands of Texas Public officials through continuing education and professional development programs he devised on their behalf, relinquished his administrative position as director of the Office of Conferences and Training at the Lyndon B. Johnson School of Public Affairs at The University of Texas at Austin.

The move became effective September 1, 1990, at which time he returned to full-time teaching on the LBJ School faculty, where his special area of expertise is public financial management. From time to time he would also offer topical seminars "Focusing on State and Local Government Learning to Manage with Less."

Professor Anderson had been associated with UT Austin for more than 50 years. He began on the staff of the University's Bureau of Municipal Research in 1964, holding research positions and then the directorship. From 1950 to 1971, he was assistant director and at times acting director of the Institute of Public Affairs, which succeeded the bureau and then later merged into the operation of the LBJ School. Professor Anderson also is a former member of the Finance and Accounting Department in the UT Austin College of Business Administration.

As director of the LBJ School's Office of Conferences and Training, Professor Anderson would annually arranged more than a dozen conferences, seminars and institutes for about 1,000 public officials on subjects ranging from public purchasing to county auditing and from government finance to improving the effectiveness of state boards. Participants came from the Governor's Office and the Texas Legislature, as well as from a variety of city, county and state agencies.

In 1982, he was named winner of the first "Career Development in Financial Management Award", given by the Municipal Finance Officers Association of the U.S. and Canada for excellence in in-service training and professional development of public finance officers.

For more than two decades Professor Anderson edited the periodical Public Affairs Comment. He served on numerous advisory and study commissions at national, state and local levels. For several years, he was on the National Council on Governmental Accounting, the national body which developed recognized standards of accounting and financial reporting for state and local government in the United States. The native Texan earned two degrees for UT Austin.
